Sixth Form Dress Code

Sixth Formers are responsible for choosing their own clothing, jewellery, shoes and hairstyles. They are expected to set an example to the rest of the school, whilst enjoying the privilege of expressing themselves more independently. Girls should be neat, smart and tidy, wearing clothes that are appropriate to a professional working environment.

When a student is taking part in a practical subject or sports it may be necessary to wear overalls over their normal clothes, or to change into something more suitable in order to comply with health and safety. Normal clothing should be worn on leaving that lesson or activity unless it is an all day event.

Suitable every day wear includes:

- Smart trousers or skirts
- Shirt, blouse, top, jumper, cardigan and or jacket
- Smart dresses
- Earrings limited to one pair
- Jewellery suitable to a working environment

Mid week school Mass and when representing Leweston at public events:

- Smart suits black/navy/pinstripe
- LVI smart white blouse/top
- UVI smart blouse/top any colour
- Black shoes

Unacceptable every day wear includes:

- Scruffy clothing
- Blue denim jeans
- Jeggings
- Shorts or cut-offs
- Skirts that are too short or too tight
- Strappy or low cut tops
- Hoodies
- Dirty/broken shoes
- Excessively high heels, trainers or converse style shoes
- Flip-flops or backless shoes
- Excessive displays of flesh
- Facial piercing
- Excessive make up
- Extreme hair styles (cut or colour)

Sixth Form Sportswear

This may be purchased from the Leweston School Shop:

- Navy polo shirt with 'Leweston Sixth Form' logo.
- Navy tracksuit bottom.
- Red hoodie with 'Leweston Sixth Form' logo.
- Any colour trainers (but not fashion trainers). Girls representing the school at netball or tennis will need predominantly white trainers.
- Any colour appropriate socks (but not fashion socks). Girls representing the school at netball or tennis will need white ankle socks.

Girls are expected to co-operate in adhering to these guidelines and to comply with all reasonable requests to change aspects of their appearance if they are advised that they are unsuitable. Where a student is concerned about the appropriateness of their clothing choices, she should consult her tutor or Head of Sixth Form for guidance.
